4 DAY TOUR

Discover Provence

Suggested itinerary for 4 days in Provence. Departures depend on the availability of producers and artisans

DAY 1: AIX-EN-PROVENCE

MORNING

- Private service from wherever you wish in the Paris area to the Paris Gare de Lyon train station. Ride out from Paris First-Class on a bullet train. Arrival at the Aix-en-Provence station at the end of the morning, where your private driver-guide awaits.
- Walk around historic downtown Aix-en-Provence and meet local producers at a nearby farmer's market.
- Lunch under a cool shaded patio, with top-notch quality and a definite taste of the South.

AFTERNOON

- Marvel at the works of artist Paul Cézanne in his workshop, where dozens of paintings now held in the greatest museums came to life.

- Nature walk in vineyards along the hillsides of the Aix region.
- Meet Nathalie and Jean-Michel, vintners who strive to implement and share their passion for organic agriculture.
- Sample their white, rosé, and red wines in their wine cellar where they favor quality over quantity.
- Dine of delicate savory meals crafted by regional star-awarded chef Bernard.
- A time of peace and quiet awaits you for the night in the charming guesthouse of Marie Louise.

AVAILABLE OPTIONS

Extend the stay in the area for one day

- Nature walk in fields of lavender.
- Hike to the top of Mount Sainte-Victoire, a chalk mountain overlooking the city.

DAY 2: MARSEILLE

MORNING

- Reach the city's highest point, the Notre-Dame de la Garde basilica. Best view of the city and of the Château d'If.
- Take a stroll among boats in the Old Port in Marseille taste the city's staple "bouillabaisse" stew for lunch.

AFTERNOON

- Visit Saint Victor Abbey, the crypt of which was constructed 1500 years ago.
- On your way back to the port, stop at the Marseille soap factory.
- Climb aboard a private sailboat with Christophe, an experienced seafarer, for a relaxing outing on the Mediterranean. The facades of the Marseille old port shine majestically under night city lights.
- Local gourmet cuisine awaits you for dinner in a nearby restaurant.
- Relax in an exceptional guest house where a comfortable room awaits.

AVAILABLE OPTIONS

Extend the stay in the area for one day

- Navigate with Christophe aboard his boat. Sail up and down the coast. Swim and dive in the clear waters of the sea.
- Explore the Mucem, a remarkable museum that details the past and present of European and Mediterranean civilizations.

DAY 3: ÎLE DU FRIOUL AND CHÂTEAU D'IF

MORNING

- With Christopher, on his private schooner, sail to the Frioul Island in less than 30 minutes.
- Lunch on a terrace in Frioul, leaving the hectic city humdrum far away.

AFTERNOON

- After a further 15 minutes worth of sailing, discover the Château d'If. This fortress was built under the reign of François the 1st. Alexandre Dumas brought the fort to fame in his novel: "The Count of Monte Cristo". Many films and movies draw inspiration from this iconic place. It's possible to purchase gifts and books in the castle's souvenir shop.
- Dine on a typical plaza in historic Marseille.
- Rest in an exceptional guest house for the night.

AVAILABLE OPTIONS

Extend the stay in the area for one day

- Dine in a Michelin-starred restaurant by the water and savor local cuisine of great finesse.
- Visit the Major Cathedral with its unique neo-Byzantine architecture, built in the second half of the 19th century.

DAY 4: CALANQUES DE CASSIS

MORNING

- Set foot in the small Provence village of Cassis, whittle time away in the typical open market and meet local producers.
- Go for a walk in the Cassis hill vineyards, meet vintner and taste his unique wines.
- Lunch in an open-air terrace in a street of historic Cassis, sampling several local delicacies.

AFTERNOON

- Visit the Calanques de Cassis by boat, and let the stunning cliffs and clear water entrance you.
- Take a break under large, cool, shade plane trees, sipping on a cool (rosé wine, beer, pastis) or warm (tea, coffee, hot chocolate) drink.
- Travel back to Paris from the Aix-en-Provence station in the bullet train (First Class).
- Private service back to wherever you wish in the Paris area from the Paris Gare de Lyon train station.

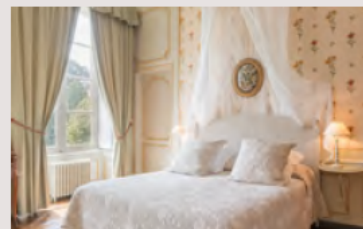

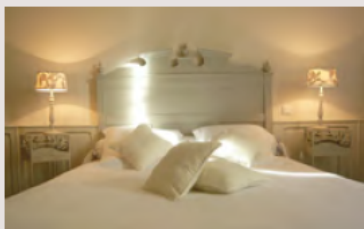

AVAILABLE OPTIONS

Extend the stay in the area for one day

- Climb to the grotto in Sainte-Baume, where Saint Mary-Magdalene lived from the year 47 after Christ died.
- Discover the Notre-Dame de Sénanque Abbey, an active Cistercian monastery set in the town of Gordes in the Lubéron region.
