

North of France

Bloody battles raged in North Of France during both World Wars. To this day, the scarred region bears witness to the furies of War. Do you feel the need to reach back to those roots? Feel a call to go honor the fallen in those desperate times? Interested in learning more about that world-shaping moment that took place 100 years ago?

Perhaps you'd also like to rejoice in the resilience and warmth of the welcoming inhabitants of the North Of France. Not to mention the hearty, binding culinary heritage that endures to this day!

With Finding France, you'll travel as a small, intimate group to experience the region. Moreover, tailor-made events and opportunities will make the 1 to 8-day stay a unique and memorable lifetime experience.

Here's our recommended itinerary for a 3-day and 2-night tour:

- DAY 1: Cathedral of Amiens and Vimy Memorial
- DAY 2: Ypres – Passchendaele WWI Battlefields / Lille
- DAY 3: Pierrefonds Castle – WWI Memorial - Compiègne

Cathedral of Amiens and Vimy Memorial

DAY 1

MORNING

- Enter a local market and meet local producers (cheesemakers, vegetable growers, livestock breeders...)
- In Amiens, visit the largest cathedral of France – twice as large as the famed Notre-Dame in Paris.

AFTERNOON

- In Vimy, honor the Canadian soldiers who fell in battle in France during World War I. Join in on a guided tour of the memorial and bunker down in the trenches.
- Meet a local cow cheese maker and visit both farm and processing facilities. He'll explain how milk is turned into creamy cheese and butter.
