DISCOVER CHAMPAGNE REGION

Since 2015, the Coteaux, Maisons et Caves of Champagne region have been listed as a UNESCO World Heritage Site in the "Living Cultural Landscapes" category.

This category, created in 1922, refers to the combined work of Man and Nature. It therefore goes beyond the simple scale of a monument or site, and highlights the way in which human activity can give rise to new landscapes and a particular culture.

Beyond its historic and emblematic hillsides, covered with vineyards as far as the eye can see, Champagne is also renowned for its historic towns and picturesque villages, with a rich and varied heritage:

Reims, the city of cathedrals: Notre-Dame de Reims, where Clovis was baptized in 496 A.D. and where the kings of France were crowned until 1825, but also the underground chalk "cathedrals" or crayères, the cellars where the famous beverage is blended,

Epernay, with its Champagne Wine Museum and the famous Avenue de Champagne, housing iconic Champagne houses such as Moët & Chandon, Mercier, Boizel and others,

Set against the backdrop of the Montagne de Reims, overlooking the hills at an altitude of 240 meters, Loiseum en Champagne hotel enjoys a privileged relationship with its surroundings.

An exception in the region's very classical decor, the hotel is resolutely contemporary, eco-responsible and built from natural materials: a rhythmic pattern of wood lines, set against a mineral base, imbued with the codes of the region.

The Patio, with its glass roof, houses the Reception, the bar and a vast fireplace-lounge opening onto the terrace. Extending from the Patio, the restaurant with the high bay windows, face the vine-streaked valleys.
